

Portland Streetcar Workshop

Saturday July 28, 2007
9am to Noon
Portland State University

Smith Center Ballroom
1825 SW Broadway
Portland, OR 97201

Get on board and join Commissioner Sam

Adams for a brainstorming session to discuss the future of streetcars in Portland. In addition to learning more about the current and future plans for streetcar corridors, participants will be able to roll up their sleeves and work with friends, neighbors, City of Portland planning staff and Commissioner Sam to discuss where future streetcar corridors could occur. Information from the workshop will help the Portland Office of Transportation (PDOT) with preparations for the City of Portland Streetcar System Plan study scheduled to start in September 2007.

Agenda

8:45 AM	Complimentary Coffee-Tea-Juice-Pastries
9:00 AM	Welcome
9:15 AM	Overview: The Current Streetcar System and PDOT Streetcar System Planning
9:30 AM	Presentation: Then and Now - History of Streetcars in Portland
10 AM	Break
10:15 AM	Streetcar System Small Group Exercise: Workshop participants divide into small groups and work together with maps, trace paper and markers to discuss and diagram what a future streetcar system would look like
10:45 AM	Streetcar System Discussion: Each group will have an opportunity to "pin up" their work from the small group exercise, present their ideas, and answer questions from the other workshop participants
11:45 AM	Wrap-Up: Opportunities to learn more about the Streetcar System Plan

To RSVP for this free event, please contact Chris Kaluza at 503-242-0084
or e-mail streetcar@portlandtransport.com